

A Colorful Beginning – MARCH 28th, 2012

Begin the program with a class retreat and begin to establish a common language around leadership, look at Holt County's past and prepare for the future with team building activities. This will be your chance to get to know the members of your class.

Fundraising Strategies – APRIL 18th, 2012

The reality of intergenerational transfer of wealth is here and now, and it means millions will escape our community unless we capture a portion of it to keep at home to support community building. Learn effective ways to be able to tap into that wealth transfer and other funding sources for your project and community.

Policy-Making – MAY 16th, 2012

The session will provide opportunities for class members to build their networks with elected officials and candidates at the local, county and state level. Learn more about issues effecting your local and county government systems.

Learning in Holt County – JUNE 20th, 2012

This session will present the major issues affecting our education system today, which we are educating, how we are doing, future of education, and what changes need to be made to the system. You will hear about day-to-day teaching and understand the impact that policy and priorities may have on the classroom experience for teachers and students, and how to mix business and education for a successful future.

Developing and Discovering Holt County – JULY 18th, 2012

What is economic development and tourism? This segment will help define those to terms; present the state of our county economy and challenges to our economic well-being; discuss the issues of attracting and maintaining businesses in the; look at emerging business and industry; feature tourism attractions in the area; provide ideas of what your community can do to bring in tourism dollars.

Housing in Holt County – AUGUST 22th, 2012

What is workforce housing? What sort of housing needs are present in Holt County? What innovating things are going on in our communities in respect to housing? What housing programs are available for our needs? Find out some of the answers to these questions as we discuss Housing needs and issues in Holt County.

Keeping Holt County Healthy – SEPTEMBER 19th, 2012

Identifying issues in private and public sectors of healthcare from a variety of perspectives is a key portion of this segment. Identify the trends and factors that are likely to influence health care access and affordability in the future, and get an inside look into the health care systems in Holt County

Communicating Your Message With Technology – OCTOBER 17th, 2012

Find out ways that technology can make your life easier, Learn new tools to use technology to communicate your message effectively and efficiently.

Agriculture in Holt County – NOVEMBER 14th, 2012

Learn and see what makes agriculture Holt County's number one industry. From production agriculture, value-added products, new technology, and conservation practices, you will also learn how Nebraska protects its environment and natural resources.

GRADUATION – NOVEMBER 30th, 2012

The graduation segment will give you one last time to bond with your class, introduce your family and friends to colleagues, find out how you can pass on the knowledge you gained while participating in Holt County's HomeTown Leadership Institute.