Business Exit Planning Seminar To Be Held

Holt County Economic Development and Central Nebraska Economic Development District will be sponsoring a Business Exit Planning Seminar to be held Monday, November 3rd at 5:30 PM at Doris' Diner in Stuart. Odee Ingesoll with the Nebraska Business Development Center will be presenting a concise, information packed presentation on small business exit planning issues and solutions.

"This is one of the most important issues businesses need to address. Exit planning is essential because no matter what, someday you will transfer your business interest," said Nicole Sedlacek with Holt County Economic Development.

A 2008 NU – Gallup survey found that 52% of small business owners plan on leaving their business sometime within the next ten years. 30% plan on leaving in five years or less. Successful transition of existing business to new owners and a new generation must supplement business creation efforts.

A complimentary meal will be served at this seminar so reservations are necessary. Please call Holt County Economic Development at (402) 336-1504 or email your reservation to nicole@holtcountynebraska.com by Friday, October 31st.

The event is also made possible with help from the Stuart Community Club and in part by a grant from the Nebraska Department of Economic Development administered by the Nebraska Rural Development Commission.
